Regulatory Framework:

Regulation 43A of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ['Listing Regulations'] mandates the top 1000 listed entities based on market capitalization to formulate a dividend distribution policy which shall be disclosed on the website of the listed entity and a web-link shall also be provided in their annual reports.

Adhering to best corporate governance practice and to comply with provisions of the SEBI Listing Regulations, as and when it becomes applicable, Maxwell Engineering Solutions Limited ['the Company'] frames this policy.

Objective:

The objective of this Policy is to specify the circumstances under which the shareholders of the Company may or may not expect dividend, the financial parameters that shall be considered while declaring dividend, internal and external factors that shall be considered for declaration of dividend and how the retained earnings shall be utilized.

Definitions:

The terms referred to in the Dividend Distribution Policy ['Policy'] will have the same meaning as defined under the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules made thereunder and the Listing Regulations.

Forms of Dividends:

Final Dividend:

The final dividend is paid once for the financial year after the annual accounts are prepared. The Board of Directors of the Company has the power to recommend the payment of final dividend to the shareholders for their approval at the General Meeting of the Company.

Interim Dividend:

This form of dividend can be declared by the Board of Directors one or more times in a financial year as may be deemed fit by it. The Board of Directors shall have the absolute power to declare interim dividend during the financial year, in line with this policy.

Factors Affecting dividend declaration:

The Dividend pay-out decision of company, depends upon certain external and internal factors-

1. Internal Factors & financial parameters:

The Board of Directors of the Company would take into account various internal factors including the financial parameters before declaring or recommending dividend to shareholders, which inter alia will include –

- a) Magnitude and Stability of Earnings: The extent of stability and magnitude of company's earnings will directly influence the dividend declaration. Thus, the dividend is directly linked with the availability of the earnings (including accumulated earnings) with the Company.

- b) Liquidity Position: A company's liquidity position also determines the level of dividend. If a company does not have sufficient cash resources to make dividend payment, then it may reduce the amount of dividend pay-out.
- c) Future Requirements: If a company foresees some profitable investment opportunities in near future including but not limited to Brand/ Business Acquisitions, Expansion / Modernization of existing businesses, Additional investments in subsidiaries/associates of the Company, Fresh investments into external businesses, then it may decide for lower dividend payout and vice-versa.
- d) Leverage profile and liabilities of the Company.
- e) Working capital requirements
- f) Capital expenditure requirements
- g) Cash flow required to meet contingencies
- h) Past Dividend Trends
- i) Any other factor as deemed fit by the Board.

2. External Factors:

Apart from the various internal factors, the Board of Directors of the Company shall take into account various external factors before declaring dividend:

- a) Legal/Statutory Provisions and Regulatory concern: The Board should keep in mind the restrictions imposed by Companies Act, any other applicable laws with regard to declaration and distribution of dividend. Further, any restrictions on payment of dividends by virtue of any regulation as may be applicable to the Company may also impact the declaration of dividend.
- b) State of Economy: The Board will endeavor to retain larger part of profits to build up reserves to absorb future shocks in case of uncertain or recessionary economic conditions and in situation where the policy decisions of the Government have a bearing on or affect the business of the Company.
- c) Taxation Policy: The tax policy of a country also influences the dividend policy of a company. The rate of tax directly influences the amount of profits available to the company for declaring dividends.
- d) Capital Markets: In case of unfavorable market conditions, Board may resort to a conservative dividend pay-out in order to conserve cash outflows and reduce the cost of raising funds through alternate resources.
- e) Dividend pay-out ratios of companies in the same industry.

Circumstances under which the shareholders may not expect Dividend:

The shareholders of the Company may not expect Dividend under the following circumstances:

- a) In the event of inadequacy of profits or whenever the Company has incurred losses;
- b) Whenever Company proposes to utilise surplus cash for buy-back of securities;
- c) Significantly higher working capital requirements adversely impacting free cash flow;
- d) Whenever it undertakes or proposes to undertake a significant expansion of business requiring higher allocation of capital;

- e) Whenever it undertakes any acquisitions or joint ventures requiring significant allocation of capital;
- f) Operation of any law in force which restricts payment of dividend in particular circumstances; and
- g) Any restrictions and covenants contained in any agreement as may be entered with the Lenders.

Retained Earnings:

The portions of profits not distributed among the shareholders but retained and used in business are termed as retained earnings. It is also referred to as ploughing back of profit. The Company should ensure to strike the right balance between the quantum of dividend paid and amount of profits retained in the business for various purposes. These earnings may be utilized for internal financing of its various activities and for fixed as well as working capital. Thus, the retained earnings shall be utilized for carrying out the main objectives of the company and maintaining adequate liquidity levels. The decision of utilization of the retained earnings of the Company shall be based on the following factors:

- Market expansion plan;
- Modernization plan;
- Diversification of business;
- Long term strategic plans;
- Replacement of capital assets;
- Where the cost of debt is expensive;
